Talking Points for Parent/Caregiver Conversations

The following talking points can be used in parent/teacher conferences, back-to-school nights or for any conversation (at student pick-up/drop-off, a school event or otherwise!) with parents/caregivers of students who are not yet reading on grade level.

- Your child is eligible for Florida’s FREE at-home reading program that helps kids read on grade level!
  - New Worlds Reading delivers 9 free books and activities directly to your home each school year through fifth grade to strengthen literacy skills, build reading confidence and spark excitement around reading.
  - Books are available in English, Spanish, Haitian Creole, or braille.
  - You can choose what books your child will receive, tailoring the books to your child’s interests. Kids get so excited to receive a special package addressed to them containing books they’ve chosen and are interested in; it really helps to generate that excitement about reading.
  - Plus, the deliveries come with activities and book guides that families can engage with together to help the child build their literacy skills to help them read on grade level.
  - To be eligible, a child must be in VPK and not yet meeting age-appropriate standards according to FAST Star Early Literacy or in K-5th grade and not yet reading on grade level in a public or charter school.
    - Standardized test scores and/or a teacher assessment can help determine students’ eligibility.
      - VPK is eligible if: scoring below the 40th percentile on FAST Star Early Literacy/Reading.
      - Kindergarten – Grade 2 are eligible if: scoring below the 40th percentile on FAST Star Early Literacy/Reading or receiving Tier 2 or Tier 3 Reading Intervention Support (as reported by districts in Survey 2 and Survey 3).

- Grades 3 – 5 are eligible if: scoring below Level 3 on FAST assessments or receiving Tier 2 or Tier 3 Reading Intervention Support (as reported by districts in Survey 2 and Survey 3).
  - [For school leaders]: If you have questions, or are not sure if a child is eligible, please consult your child’s teacher.
  - [For teachers]: Your child is not yet reading on grade level, but I believe that together, we can help get them there.
- Applying is easy: Visit newworldsreading.com to apply for your child today.
- The program is free and simple—here is how it works:
  - After you apply, there will be a waiting period as New Worlds Reading confirms your child is eligible. You’ll receive an email notifying you once that process is complete..
  - From October through June each school year, a book will be mailed to your preferred address, completely free of charge..
    - If you apply or your eligibility is confirmed after October, you’ll still receive all books from that school year! Some packages may have more than one book to catch up.
- Books offer children infinite possibilities to discover and explore, and reading is the foundation of so many lifelong skills. New Worlds Reading seeks to make reading an adventure children look forward to—from selecting books that interest them, to unwrapping the package in the mail each month, to sharing a book with a family member or exploring new worlds through independent reading.
- Background Information:
  - More than 960,000 Florida students are eligible for New Worlds Reading.

- The program is administered by the University of Florida Lastinger Center for Learning, which has selected Scholastic as a partner.
- All books are selected in collaboration with the Florida Department of Education.

Sample Messaging

The below email, phone and classroom communication platform templates serve as example messages for teachers or tailored to parents / caregivers, sharing about the benefits of New Worlds Reading and making it easy to encourage student applications.

From Principals to Teachers

Dear Teachers,

As you may know, we are encouraging families of eligible students to apply for Florida's FREE at-home literacy program, New Worlds Reading. This program mails monthly free books and activities to eligible students who are not yet reading on grade level. Once enrolled, students remain in the program through fifth grade, even if their reading scores improve.

Families can choose which books they'd like to receive in English, Spanish, Haitian Creole, or braille. All books are selected in collaboration with the Florida Department of Education.

To be eligible, a child must be in VPK and not yet meeting age-appropriate standards according to FAST Star Early Literacy or in K-5th grade and not yet reading on grade level in a public or charter school. This eligibility is determined by:

- VPK: a child must be in VPK and not yet meeting age-appropriate standards according to FAST Star Early Literacy.
- Kindergarten - Grade 3: Any student who is not yet reading on grade level based on progress monitoring data from Star Early Literacy or Star Reading assessment or receives tier 2 or tier 3 instruction.
- Grades 4 - 5: Any student not yet reading on grade level who scored either a Level 1 or Level 2 on the FAST ELA progress monitoring or receives tier 2 or tier 3 instruction.

New Worlds Reading is administered by the University of Florida Lastinger Center for Learning, which has selected Scholastic as a partner. This is an incredible opportunity to help our children build at-home libraries, strengthen their literacy skills and foster a love for reading among students and their families.

In [School Name], we have an estimated [XX] eligible students, and I'm asking for your help to work with our families to apply and ensure these eligible children can take advantage of its benefits. There are a number of ways to share the program with families, including but not limited to:

- Ensuring program flyers (available in English, Spanish and Haitian Creole) go home to eligible students in their folders
- Introducing the program to families at parent-teacher conferences and other ongoing, one-on-one communication checkpoints
- Sharing program details at school events such as back-to-school nights, student assemblies and other engagement opportunities

Please feel free to reach out to me with any questions. Additionally, you can email the program directly at new.worlds@coe.ufl.edu.

Thank you,
[XX]

Spanish:

Estimado padre/madre/cuidador(a),

En nombre de [School Name], me gustaría compartir con ustedes sobre New Worlds Reading, el programa de entrega de libros GRATUITO de Florida. New Worlds Reading envía por correo libros y actividades gratuitos a niños elegibles para ayudarlos a fortalecer sus habilidades de lectoescritura, desarrollar confianza en su capacidad de leer y fomentar un amor de por vida por la lectura. Una vez inscritos, los estudiantes recibirán automáticamente libros y recursos gratuitos hasta el quinto grado, incluso si sus calificaciones en lectura mejoran.

New Worlds Reading es administrado por el Centro para el Aprendizaje Lastinger de la Universidad de Florida, que ha seleccionado a Scholastic como socio. Los libros se seleccionan en colaboración con el Departamento de Educación de Florida. Los materiales están disponibles en inglés, español, criollo haitiano o braille. Esta es una oportunidad increíble de crear una biblioteca personalizada y gratuita para su niño/a, y fomentar en el hogar el amor por la lectura.

Para ser elegible, el niño deberá estar en VPK (programa de prekindergarten voluntario) y no cumplir todavía con los estándares apropiados para su edad según la evaluación FAST Star Early Literacy, o estar en kindergarten al 5.º grado en una escuela pública o chárter y no leer todavía al nivel de su grado. Inscriba a su niño/a hoy mismo. Para hacerlo, escanee el código QR que aparece a continuación o visite newworldsreading.com/enroll.

No dude en comunicarse conmigo si tiene alguna pregunta o duda. También puede enviar un correo electrónico al programa directamente a support@newworldsreading.com.

¡Gracias por continuar fomentando el amor por la lectura en su niño/a!
